HARR IS HERE

W. R. Harr, the representative of the Department of Justice who is to investigate the charges made against the United States District Attorney Breckons, arrived today by the Siberia. Mr. Harr had not up in the noon hour called on Mr. Breckons or interviewed Rev. Thwing, who is the author of the charges.

Straight Ticket

The Republican Committee urges upon every voter calling himself a Republican to stand behind the Party at the election tomorrow and vote the straight Republican ticket. Every vote counts and it is only on this basis that the Republican Party can be assured a complete victory. "Your own vote and another man's for the straight ticket." That is the slogan.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

KURIO WILL CARRY MAUI AND MOLOKAI

"Delegate Kurio will carry Maui, Molokai, and probably Kauai, with a great majority," stated Lloyd Conkling, who has just returned from a hurry-up trip to those islands, this morning. "The sentiment everywhere, so far as I could see, was in favor of Kahanalana, and it seemed to be a pretty well established fact that his majority would be overwhelming."

Her first class passenger accommodations taxed to their capacity, the Pacific Mail steamer Siberia tied up at the Hachfeld wharf at 9 o'clock this morning. The passenger list, as far as through bookings to the Orient is concerned, is the largest in some time and but for the fact that a number of people stopped at this port, those who booked here for the Orient would have been hard put to secure accommodations. The Siberia carries a considerable quantity of freight and mail for the Orient. Mail for several days and 200 tons of freight were discharged here this morning. The ship will sail at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Big Republican Rally And Torchlight Parade

Republican partizanship and enthusiasm will reach their zenith to-night in the grand torchlight procession through the business section of the town and the final rally at Aala Park. The parade tonight will undoubtedly eclipse anything of the kind ever held in Honolulu before. Many novel and striking features are being planned by the party leaders, and the business houses of the city have entered heartily into their arrangements.

Princet organizations taking part in the parade will be supplied with fireworks, red fire, banners, and flags, and there will be besides a body of forty horsemen who will display fireworks in a spectacular manner. Everything will be conducted in an orderly manner, and spectators need have no fear of being crowded or jostled so long as they do not block the streets.

The police are prepared to take charge of the crowd, which they expect to number something like 15,000, and will preserve strict order throughout the evening. The parade itself will comprise over 1,500 men, most of whom will be in uniform.

The following firms will have transparencies in the procession: Hachfeld & Co., Davies & Co., Honolulu.

BOOST THINGS ALONG SAYS EXPERT NEWELL

Urges Activity In The Reclaiming Of Arid Lands

"Reclamation and the Development of Arid Lands" was the topic covered by Frederick H. Newell, director of the United States Reclamation Service, in his address before the Commercial Club this noon. The speaker enumerated the steps which must be taken to induce settlers to come into any new country, and called particular attention to the needs of the Hawaiian Islands.

He said, in part: "You have already taken up the question of getting people to come here. But you must take steps to call attention to the fact that the Hawaiian Islands are on the map."

"The ignorance which exists among well-informed people concerning the Hawaiian Islands is remarkable. I have heard people who should know better say that if they buy anything in the Hawaiian Islands they will have to pay duty when they go back to the mainland. Such misconception should be corrected as generally as possible."

"Now as to the people who might be brought here. There are many people who are looking for a place to settle. Watch should be kept for them. Now of course many of these people have no means at all. If they have been unable to save anything so far, it is not likely that they will be able to do so now. As a general thing a man should have from $1500 to $2000 before he should be considered as a candidate to take up any reclaimed farm."

Mr. Newell then enumerated the sections of the mainland which, though comparatively sterile at one time, have been developed until they are among the most fertile agricultural sections of the country.

"Now there are many products of the Hawaiian Islands that might be developed unavailably no doubt," continued he. "There is doubtless something that can be raised here in a manner superior to that which is possible in any other section of the world. Take, let us say, the banana. It is possible that a banana might be raised here which would far surpass that raised at any other place."

"You may say that the climate here is too hot. If you compare the climate here with that of Imperial County, California, where wonderful melons are being raised, you will find that your climate here is very moderate."

Rev. Hiram Bingham Is Dead

Baltimore, Oct. 26.—Rev. Dr. Hiram Bingham, the noted Congregational missionary, who underwent a surgical operation at Johns Hopkins Hospital last week, died there yesterday. Dr. Bingham was born in Honolulu in 1821, to which place his parents had gone from America in 1820 as pioneer missionaries. In 1856 he went to the Gilbert Islands as a missionary.

The Missionary Album, which was gotten out by the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society in 1901, contains the following sketch of Mr. Bingham's life:

"Rev. Hiram Bingham, D. D., born in Honolulu, Oahu, Aug. 16, 1821; was educated in U. S. Yale College, 1853; Andover Seminary, 1856; was ordained Nov. 2, 1856, and was stationed at Apurangu, Gilbert Islands, Nov. 18, 1857 until Sept. 8, 1865, and in the next ten years made several annual and two stop-over visits from Honolulu to those islands; since 1875 he has labored in Honolulu for the Gilbertese nation and the colony in Hawaii; New Testament translation was finished April 11, 1873; Old Testament finished April 11, 1893; numerous other books translated, and a Gilbertese dictionary not yet printed. Mr. and Mrs. Bingham sailed from Boston in the first brig Morning Star, Captain Moore, Dec. 2, 1856, and arrived at Honolulu April 24, 1857; arrived at the Gilbert Islands Nov. 1857. Mr. Bingham commanded the second Morning Star for one year (1867)."

ADVANCE GUARD OF DREDGING MEN

Preparing To Bid On Great Pearl Harbor Contract

The advance guard of the dredging men who will bid for the big Pearl Harbor contract came in on the Siberia. They will go over the work and proceed from here to Washington where the bids will be opened the first day of December.

N. R. Harris, who is among the arrivals, is vice president and manager of the American and Golden Gate Dredging Companies. This is the combination with which W. H. Hoogs is associated. Mr. Harris incidentally is a Democrat and admits that Taft will be elected President.

R. A. Perry, who also came in today, represents the North American Dredging Company. Among the outgoing passengers booked on the Lurline is E. J. Lord of the local dredging company. It is presumed that he has gone over the harbor all he deems necessary and is now headed for Washington to be ready with his bid the first of next month.

BUSINESS HOUSES CLOSE TOMORROW

The following business houses have signified their intention of closing tomorrow, election day:

RESULT Of Election IS CLOSE

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Nov. 2.—Candidate Taft will close his campaign tonight at Cincinnati, and Bryan will close at Lincoln, Nebraska. Both have made several addresses today.

The fight in New York and Ohio will be prolonged till midnight.

The Associated Press states that the indications are that the vote of New York, Indiana, Nebraska, and Kentucky will be close. Ohio is claimed by the Republicans and Taft has predicted a sweeping victory in New York, including the election of Governor Hughes.

Mr. Bryan has issued a statement expressing his confidence in his election. His national estimates have been renewed.

Democratic National Committeeman Mack claims that there will be a landslide for Bryan. He also attacks Hearst, claiming that the Independence party was organized to defeat Bryan for personal revenge. He expects that the lines will be drawn closely everywhere.

The final State estimates are narrowing down and indicate that the election will be the closest since 1892.

In the Eastern States enthusiasm is intensifying. The Western sentiment is dormant.

Republican Prospect Bright Says Atkinson

On the last day of the campaign the prospects look brighter for the Republicans than I had any expectation of when the canvass was begun. From every side our reports tell us that the Hawaiian vote is strongly behind us.

Prince Cupid is certain to be elected. Last election the Home Rulers were partly fused with the Democrats, but now these two parties are bitterly opposing each other and the Home Rulers are disposed to favor Prince Kurio. There is every indication that public sentiment is strongly behind the Republican ticket.

The Republicans are going ahead in harmony and my forecast is that the Republican party will have a sweeping victory. There is no reason existing for a defection from the Republican strength, so look for a sweeping victory.

A. L. C. ATKINSON.

The above statement was issued this morning by Chairman Atkinson of the Republican Central Committee.
